

INTENSIVE WORKSHOP ON

Exploring Curricular Adaptations for Special Needs Children

18th July 2016, India International Centre, New Delhi

Efforts to encourage co-curricular participation for the special needs group as an integral part of the school life helps to unlock their infinite potentials and empower their self-esteem. In this context, Expressions India organized a pioneering workshop on EXPLORING CURRICULAR ADAPTATIONS FOR SPECIAL NEEDS CHILDREN. The launch of this special needs intervention series is to empower teachers and allied professionals in helping children with special educational interventions and provisions as being integrated in the National Policy of Education (2016). The dialogue will facilitate a series of training programs for teachers and school functionaries to manage the spectrum of specific learning and behavioral problems in the early and middle school years. The method will be case work and focused group discussions on curricular adaptation for the primary and upper primary children.

One of the renowned role models of India's youth, the eminence of PROF. (Dr.) SAROJ YADAV, Dean (Academic) & Project Coordinator, NPEP & AEP, NCERT, New Delhi as our Honourable Chief Guest.
